OBJECTIVE

To save our vanishing American heritage of art and contributions of artists. To save biographical materials, images and works of art. To tell the stories of our creative worth. To enable the creative process to be recognized as the vital resource necessary for continued prosperity and cultural development. To provide enrichment to the public through presentations of previously lesser known American art and artists.

1 Preserve America cultural heritage for posterity
2 Introduce new audiences to the art
3 Include more artists in the 100 years legacy archive.

POLICIES
Funding Sources
The Museum is financially supported by private donations, and expects to receive support from supporter members, and government grants, and sales from the gallery/gift shop which offers prints, cards and original art donated by supporter artists and art owners.

Memberships
The Museum is open to the public for supporter participation in it's charitable activities.
The River Art Museum Inc. is also open to the public qualifying and interested in management and administration of the Museum business.

Continuing Activities
 Website development
 Database development and Access feature and short films on artists, art, and the creative process

Specific Actions:

Feature Films:

Full-frame Mirrorless Digital Camera Body with 8K 44.3MP CMOS Sensor, Phase Hybrid AF with AI, Active I.S.

We are introducing movie making as our new pathway to inform audiences about art, artists, and preserving art for posterity. Productions include documentaries, reality TV, and narrative features based on artists' lives.

Upgrading equipment to new streaming standards is the first step In bringing focus to these documentary and narrative films.

Fairfield County Creatives and Woodstock Creatives

Documentary Feature Films

We're hoping this coming year to be able to establish A new permanent base in Tamworth New Hampshire.

FUTURE PLANS AND COMMITMENTS

Creating movies about artists, interviews with artists, and Artist To Artist Reality TV

REVIEW OF FINANCIAL STATE
The Charity has a surplus of $134.12
All volunteer services were donated by Glen River, John Gabriel, Faith Vicinanza, and Frederika Leet. Our sincere thanks to all who are donating and participating.
